EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Year Of Exprience	10 years and 4

Background	I am currently working as an Executive Assistant on a temporary basis in Pakistan. With over a decade of experience in fashion design, marketing, and facilities management, I have honed a diverse set of skills that span from creating detailed fashion designs and technical drawings to managing large-scale marketing campaigns and coordinating maintenance operations. What I excel at is project management, ensuring timely execution and attention to detail in all aspects of my work. Whether it's developing innovative fashion concepts, optimizing marketing strategies, or handling executive tasks, I am focused on delivering high-quality results. My proficiency in communication, collaboration, and problem-solving enables me to navigate complex situations efficiently. At present, I am further strengthening my organizational and project coordination skills, while keeping an eye on future opportunities in both the fashion industry and administrative roles.
