Background	I am an experienced professional with a strong background in marketing strategies, corporate communication, team management, and data-driven decision-making. Over the years, I have developed expertise in KPI tracking, brand strategy, strategic planning, business writing, negotiations, problem-solving, and consumer insights. My work has given me a deep understanding of international business communication and e-commerce, enabling me to develop effective strategies and lead teams to achieve business goals. Currently, I am actively pursuing opportunities in sales and marketing, Packaging ,and logistics including a position in Italy, while also exploring roles in operations and supervision. My experience extends beyond the corporate world—I have worked as a public affairs advisor public and and have hands-on experience in farming, including landscaping, tilling, weeding, uprooting, and trimming. I am passionate about combining my diverse skills to drive meaningful impact, whether in business, public service, or classroom. I am highly motivated, adaptable, and committed to continuous learning, which drives my success in various fields. My goal is to leverage my experience and skills to contribute effectively to any organization while embracing new challenges and opportunities.
