EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Background	I have been working as a supervisor in a retail store for a few years now, where I lead a team and make sure everything runs smoothly on a daily basis. My main duties include organizing tasks for the team, keeping the store clean and well-arranged, and making sure that all work is completed on time. I also take care of training new staff, ensuring they understand their responsibilities and can perform their jobs well. I enjoy guiding others and helping them improve. I have strong skills in managing different tasks at once, paying attention to details, and solving any problems that come up during the day. I make sure that the store environment is safe, clean, and welcoming for customers. When there are any issues, whether related to the staff or the workflow, I step in to find quick and effective solutions. At present, I am focused on ensuring that my team meets all the targets and goals set by the company. I regularly help the team improve their performance by giving advice and support. I am very comfortable working in busy environments and can handle pressure well. I also take pride in being able to work both independently and with a team, depending on what is needed at the time
