Background	I am currently working as a Housekeeping Supervisor at The Dwarika's Hotel, where I have been employed since 2016 after completing my Bachelor’s degree in Business Studies. My role involves overseeing the housekeeping team, ensuring cleanliness and maintenance standards are met throughout the hotel. I am responsible for managing daily tasks, training staff, and making sure that guests have a pleasant experience during their stay. I have strong organizational skills and a good eye for detail, which helps me ensure that all rooms and hotel areas are kept to a high standard of cleanliness. I also enjoy working with my team, providing guidance and support to improve efficiency and quality in our work. I am dedicated to maintaining a clean and welcoming environment for guests, and I take pride in delivering excellent service.
