Background	I am a dedicated and hardworking individual with diverse experience in law enforcement, hospitality, and agriculture. My career started as a temporary police officer with the Nepal Police Department, where I was able to gain valuable skills in discipline, teamwork, and leadership. After completing my temporary service, I transitioned into roles in the hospitality industry as a cleaner, followed by a leadership role in the agricultural sector. Throughout my journey, I have continually focused on learning new skills, from managing teams to leading farm operations. I bring a strong work ethic, organizational skills, and the ability to adapt quickly to new environments. My passion for personal development is evident in my interests in graphic design, meditation, exercise, and mapping, which I pursue in my free time. I am now looking forward to applying my varied experiences in a new, challenging environment where I can contribute to both personal and organizational success
