--------------------------	---------

Background	I am a dedicated and detail-oriented Planning Engineer with a strong background in project management, quality control, and industrial maintenance. I am particularly skilled in managing supplier performance, ensuring product quality, and optimizing manufacturing and operational processes. I excel at coordinating with engineering teams to establish performance standards, conducting thorough evaluations, and overseeing complex installations, including gas systems and industrial machinery. Currently, I am focused on ensuring the smooth operation of engineering projects, overseeing quality assurance processes, and providing strategic recommendations for system improvements. I am also actively involved in troubleshooting and maintaining critical industrial equipment, ensuring optimal performance and minimizing downtime.
